

Irving Club (aka Irving Literary and Dramatic Club)

Overview

The listing for this club in the 1886 to 1887 Glasgow Post Office directory gives a good summary of the group and its activities:

'[...] This Club, which is under the direct patronage of Mr. Henry Irving, devotes its attention to the study of dramatic literature and orchestral music. Meetings are held in the Rooms, 109 Hope St. every Thursday evening at 8.30, when amateurs and others interested in matters dramatic are invited to attend. Play nights are held on the first Thursday, and literary nights on the third Thursday of each month. Applications for membership and other communications to be addressed to the secretary'.
